

Response to Reviewer-1

Thanks. We corrected all the spacing issues.
We provided detailed suggestions for future research.

Response to reviewer-2

We revised it as suggested.
Yes we understand. But there's also other literature treating them as informal (e.g., Shumet, S., Azale,

- We edited it for it to flow a little more smoothly. Still, we are open to any other suggestions of yours.
- It was our oversight. We corrected them, all using a hyphen.
- We added a phrase to explain it.
- The US census question sets were used for demographic questions. We listed it as a limitation in the original submission.
- Police was mistakenly listed there and now removed. We explained in our response to an earlier comment why we treated religious officials as informal.
- To make it easier to read and follow, we split this paragraph into two, one for police and another for medical care.
- We corrected them according to APA.
- We added a subheading.
