

Response to reviewer-1

Thank you for your suggestions and recommendations. As suggested, the literature was combined with the introduction. The Methods section was added and the subheadings now follow APA guidelines; the three themes are now identified and the as “Linguistic interpretation and translation, Motivation to help, and Expert Instruction,” with the main focal point addressing the call for multilingual social work and linguistic alignment. The manuscript was condensed to 19 pages.

Response to reviewer-2

Thank you for your suggestions and recommendations. The entire manuscript was updated with timely data and references to support the topic and themes. Service coordination gaps were met and the sample size was justified. Although the suggested topic for the manuscript was considered, we selected a topic that was more suitable for this manuscript (suggested by another reviewer). Hence, we selected the three themes mentioned in your comments. Proofreading was the priority in this submission. Attention was given to the sections within the manuscript; the introduction, literature review, methodology, and findings were updated or revised to meet the expectations of your review. The Key Recommendations for revision were adhered to incorporated in the manuscript.

Response to reviewer-3

Thank you for your suggestions and recommendations. The suggested title was ideal and was considered for this manuscript. Proofreading was a priority and clarifications and repetitive statements were addressed. The entire manuscript was updated with timely data and references to support the topic and themes. A disclaimer was added to the text.
