

EMPLOYEE-SUPERVISOR FIT AND CORE VALUES IN PHYSICAL THERAPY PRIVATE PRACTICE: A MIXED-METHODS STUDY

Review 1

Overall, the article poses an interesting concept that has not been well established within the context of PT.

This concept however has been well established in the business and leadership literature within other health professions and should include citations from literature in these other healthcare professions.

Additional citations are needed for many statements made within this paper.

Tables and data need to be appropriately formatted.
