

I would like to commend the author on the improvements made to the revised manuscript. However, it is important to note that several paragraphs lack appropriate citations. I recommend that the author incorporates additional references in as many paragraphs as feasible to enhance the manuscript's credibility and scholarly rigor.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.